An Important Decision of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day decided in the case of the State of South Carolina ex rel. Wagner against Stall, County Treasurer, from the Supreme Court of the State, involving the question of the validity of the issues of the bank of the State during the war. The charter of the bank, framed in 1862, provided that its issues should be receivable for taxes, but the County Treasurer now refused to receive them on the ground that they were issued in aid of the rebellion and were therefore no tender. The court below sustained the objection, and the judgment was for the Treasurer.On a former argument of the case in this Court that judgment was re-affirmed, but upon a re-argument had at this term, there is a change of opinion, and the judgment is now reversed, the same Judge writing the opinion of the Court holding that as the faith of the State was pledged for bills for the holders were entitled to rely upon that credit and to its protection. The credit of the State could not be withdrawn without an open and clear declaration to that effect, and such a declarawas not made until 1868, by the repeal of the charter which was no law o render the bills no tender in the present case. One other case was decided by the decision in this. Justice Hunt delivered the opinion; Justice Bradley dissented.

RESPITE GRANTED.-Gov. Caldwell has issued a respite to Anaca Garrett, who was to have been hanged at Plymouth, Washington county, to-day. The execution is stayed until Friday, November 28th, and the case will be further investigated. The respite was issued on Saturday, and, as the papers could not possibly reach Plymouth in time, the fact of their issuance was telegraphed to Franklin, Va., with instruction to have the telegram immediately forwarded to the county seat of Washington. Anaca is 80 years of age, and is charged with the murder of a little girl. Her pardon is urged by the District Solicitor and a number of the best citizens of the county. Mention of this case was made in the DAILY NEWS some days ago.

ST. JAMES' RELEIF COMMITTEE. INAUGURATED BY FATHER MCNA-MARA ON LAST SUNDAY.—The Pastor of St. John's Church made the poor of Raleigh the subject of his discourse during divine service on Sunday last. After alluding at considerable length to the destitution which threatened so many here and elsewhere during the coming winter, he ex-pressed his gratification that the ministers, and the press, and the charitably disposed of our city are making laudable efforts to relieve the distresses of the poor and to carry comfort to the houses of sorrowing members of humanity. He set before his people the obligation of extending succor to the needy and he called upon the men and women of his flock to arouse themselves, and to make exertions to contribute, by every means in their power, to alleviate the sufferings of the poor of God without distinction of creed or country. If we know that a fellow-creature is cold or hungry, we have no right to withhold our help because that creature is not, per-haps, of our own blood or religion. The obligation urges to extend succor to those in want—to those who differ from us in religion or in other ways, equally as to those united with us in the same fold. After dwelling on the character of true charity, Father McNamara pro-ceeded to inaugurate a system of Relief which he trusted would do its share towards furthering the gener-ous works of charity in which so many of our best citizens are now engaged. He announced the names of three gentlemen who would act in conjunction with him, and who should constitute what shall be known as "St. James' Relief Committee." The officers are as follows:

President—Mayor Whitaker.

Secretary—N. Plumadore.

Treasurer—M. B. Barbee.

Counsellor-Rev. J. V. McNamara The plan of operation is simple, but it is hoped will be found to work efficaciously for the relief of the distressed. A box will be attached to the door of the Church, similar to the letter box at a postoffice. Passers-by may drop therein whatever of their charity they feel disposed to contribute. The key of this box is in the care of the Committee, and the donations found therein will be distributed by them according to the mode devised for the relief of the destitute. Also letters containing money, orders for wood, clothing, food, or anything else serviceable to the poor, may be sent through the postoffice or dropped in the Relief box at the Church door. The applicant for relief can call on any of as they have means at the disposal of their Committee they will give orders which the Secretary will fill in cash, wood, food, clothing, &c., as the same shall come into possession of the Committee. Father McNamara called upon the ladies to occupy themselves in making articles of clothing, bed-covering, &c., &c., and to send these articles to St. James' Relief Committee, or go themselves and visit the poor, give them cover-ing for day and night, give them food and consolation, and get their blessings in return, or send the articles they prepare to any other church, or to any other Association, as they

An excellent mode is also to send orders on any store or wood-yard in town, and to make arrangemts for the prompt delivery of goods to the amount of the intended donation. The depository for articles in the hands of this committee is at St.

is that the poor receive relief, and that this relief be extended with the right

John's Church. Father McNamara endorsed, with much satisfaction, the expression of Rev. Mr. Mangum, of the Methodist Church, in a recent issue of this paper, to the effect that if the affliction consequent on drunkenness and prostitution should disappear, there would be left in Raleigh a very inconsiderable amount of destitution.

ANOTHER INTELLECTUAL TREAT IN STOKE. - We are requested by Theo. N. Ramsay to announce that J. W. Hartly, the celebrated Elocutionist, will appear in this city and give a number of readings, commencing on Thursday night, November 27th. We copy the following notices of his readings from the American press: "Mr. J. W. Hartley, who delighted the audience at the May entertainment, by his capital reading of the laughable sketch of "Artemus Ward among the Mormons;" Mark Twain's amusing recital of "Buck Fanshaw's Funeral," etc., read again on this occasion. Mr. Hartley has great versatility of talent, and unmistakable ability, as a reader. A good voice, a jocose facial expression, an inimitable droll manner, and great equanimity, admirably fit him for rendering pieces of humorous character."—Brooklyn

"His selections from the most popular authors were made with judicious taste, and rendered so effectively as to win the warm plaudits of a critical audience."-Hudson Register. "The programme was varied, and contained several humorous pieces. 'Artemus Ward's Panorama' keeping the audience convulsed with laughter from beginning to end."-Long Branch Daily News.

THE TREMAINES ARE COMING.-The old Raleigh favorites, the Tremaine Brothers, with the redoubtable John G. Pierson, are billed for this city next Tuesday night, at Tucker Hall. They have the same old troupe, with one or two new characters additional. It is unnecessary for us to say a single word in commendation of the select and chaste entertainment of the Tremaines. They are well known here, and a well packed hall on Tues-day night will show the high appreciation in which they are held by our citizens. DIED.—C. Lee, Esq., son of John W. Lee, of Johnston county, aged 21 years, died at the residence of his tin : A. Branch—Wilson; John Wilson—Bertie; S. S. CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME. ASSETS, LA JANUARY, 1873 NUMBER 5.

As we were absent from the city Saturday and yesterday in Petersburg, we were unable to make a tour to any of the destitute localities, and consequently our subject is bare to-day of the information in regard to the poor.

Having secured the object for which these articles were intended it might be considered unnecessary to pursue the subject further, but we are not satisfied with work half completed and shall proceed with a few articles more at least. The large union meeting at the Baptist Church Sunday night was said to be by those in attendance very enthusiastic and much good will result from it. The meeting of the young men's Christian Association last night at the Presbyterian Church will also be productive of general good. The "Ladies Relief Society have been aroused to renewed activity in their deeds of mercy, and our whole christian community are at work in earnest to remedy the evils that have brought so much destitution upon While our articles have brought about this happy result by so thorough ly arousing the people to the importance of dispensing a portion of their chairity fund at home, we feel highly encouraged to continue the work we have commenced, and in the absence of an article on general desti-tution we may refer to the death of the poor girl, Georgia Proctor, which occurred yesterday morning, as a corroboration of our previous statements.

It is not known who Georgia Proctor was. She was known by this name in the miserable house of ill-fame in which she died, and the probability is that her true christian name is buried with her. Her death was reported at the police headquarters, and from Capt. King, Chief of Police, we obtained the circumstances of the sad affair: She died in extreme poverty, and was attended in her last moments by none but her accessories in crime. She leaves a small female infant, which is now in the possession of the girl that was with her when she died. As to the circumstances attending her sickness, we could learn no facts other than that the disease was dropsy of the heart, and Dr. Jas. McKee was the attending physician. She was buried in a pauper's grave at the expense of the

The subject is one upon which a very feeling article could be written, but we only have space and disposition at this time for the plain statement of the case, which those of a fertile imagination may embellish according to taste.

THE LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY AGAIN.-The following communication, in regard to this benevolent Society, needs no introduction or explanation:

MESSRS. EDITORS: Excuse a slight correction in the printing of our article on the Ladies' Relief Society, in the clause, "as stated before, Messrs. Editort the funds of one church in this city," &c., &c. The added word 'scanty" cannot be applied to the donations of the church referred to. They have always been ample in proportion to means. Our object in bringing the Ladies' Relief Society into notice is simply to induce the community generally to adopt some mode of supplying the poor with remunerative employment, such as will more effectually relieve them from want and produce a selfreliance and respect which tend to elevate their character, strengthen their physical powers, and enable them to better appreciate the bounties of their Creator. "He that will not work neither shall he eat," is a maxim of Scripture. There can be no true rational enjoyment without soul-in-vigorating industry. Inaction enfecbles and debases the mind, while wholesome employment strengthens and elevates; and rightly guided, will do all for the glory of God.

We rejoice to see the following clause in the recent article of your local editor: We do this in the interest of the destitute and starving of the city of Raleigh, with a hope that we may be the means of inaugurating some plan for the relief of such, if they are to be found in the city." A plan for the permanent relief of the poor can only be laid in a permanent supply of work-together with regular christian counsel and encouragement. All salutary reforms must necessarily be based on morality and religion, i. e. a love and fear of God and a keeping of his commandments. The Ladies' Relief Society is a good all the suffering in Raleigh. They do what they can. The Young Men's Christian Association has done a great deal of good, but like all institutions of man there s something lacking. We will explain ourselves by giving

One of the ladies of the Relief Society on entering one of the houses of the poor, put the usual questions to its inmates: "By what means do you live?"

And the answer was-"Oh, we don't work-we draws." Here these benevolent young men enabled the inmates of this wretched hovel to exist in a state of squallid poverty, filth, idleness, and, perhaps, crime, without work.

What kind of work can you do?"

Might not these very funds be more wisely, more beneficially ememployed in founding an institution for the supply of work for the poor? It is surely worth their considera-tion? They were worse than thrown away in the instance above. In the good old town of Newbern.

N. C., fifty years ago, an institution of this kind was established, in which the whole community joined. Beggary was entirely done away with. All were supplied with work, and there was seldom a cry of poverty known. The writer of this article was one

MEETING FOR THE BENEFIT of the Poor.—On Sunday night last, pursuant to previous notice; a large number of our citizens assembled at the Baptist Church to listen to addresses and to take the necessary steps to provide for the poor of Raleigh during the coming winter.

NO. 55.

The Methodists were represented by Rev. A. W. Mangum, the Baptists by Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, the Presbyterians by Rev. Robert Burwell, the Rev. Mr. Atkinson being absent from the city, and the Young Men's Christian Association by Messrs. W. H Crow, A. M. McPheeters and John Armstrong.

Armstrong.

Mr. Mangum read a number extracts from the Old and New Testaments inculcating the duty of giving to the poor, and then, after prayer by Rev. Robert Burwell, Dr. Pritchard addressed the large audience on the duty devolving on them to provide for the poor in our midst. He was followed by Mr. Mangum. We have never heard these gentlemen when they were more eloquent or more thoroughly in earnest. Their remarks produced a profound impression on the audience and we look for good results from what they said, and from the statements made by Messrs. Crow and McPneeters in relation to the opera-tions of the Young Men's Christian Association. It appeared to be the judgment of the meeting that this Association should be the organization through which this work of mercy should be done. The Association was to hold a meeting last night in the Session Room of the Presbyterran Church, to take steps to raise money and appoint distributors to money and appoint distributors to the poor during the winter, in the various parts of the city. We hail this movement with much gratification. We trust that every ne who has a heart to feel for humar distress and suffering will rally to the Young Men's Christian Association, and contribute liberally to this noble and necessary work of charity. If our articles on this subject have contributed to any extent to excite our citizens to action in this important matter, we shall feel more than repaid for our labor and trouble.

TRUE, NOTWITHSTANDING .- The subjoined communication we publish at the request of the writer. We would it were not so, but it is so, neverthe-less. The statement that we pub-lished was from the woman, and in the presence of the soldier himself. We are glad to know that the Government provides for the destitute wives of the soldiers, and if "Soldat" will only call at our office we will accompany him to the residence of the woman in question, and hear from er own lips the sad story ferings: Post of Raleigh, N. C., November 3rd, 1873.

To the Editor of the Daily News: SIR:-In your issue of Saturday Nov. 1st., there was a statement to the effect that a soldier's wife, living near the garrison, was in actual want and suffering with neuralgia. It can-not be so, as I know that every soldier's wife in the three companies stationed here are far from being in want; on the contrary, they are well off—in fact better provided for than two-thirds of the mechanic's wives in the country, as all their wants are supplied by the Government; rations, fuel, quarters, medical attendance In fact, married people are in better circumstances than unmarried nes in the army.

Hoping that you will insert this in your paper, I remain, Yours truly, &c.,

SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor, NOVEMBER 4, 1878 PRINCE NAPOLEON is about to visit this country.

DURING the past year the local taxation in Ireland has amounted to nearly $3,000,000.

JOSEPH ARCH, the great English labor reformer, announces his speedy return home.

THERE are two thousand five hundred and seventy-eight Grange organizations in the South.

Two of the New York detectives employed to work up the case of MAC-DONALD, the Bank of England forger, are now on trial for complicity in the crime.

THE recent letter of Count DE CHAMBORD is regarded as having done away with all hope of restoring the monarchy in France.

THE equestrian statue of Gen. SCOTT will be removed from the foundry in New York, and placed in position in Washington by the opening of Congress.

CASTELAR is administering the Spanish government with a vigorous hand. The Carlists have been checked, and the fall of Cartagena, the insurgent stronghold, is only a question of time.

An exchange says that Governor OSBORNE, of Kansas, is in a dilemma. It devolves upon him to appoint a successor to CALDWELL, but as he can't appoint himself, and as he is determined that no man other than Os-BORNE shall have the place, he is in a fog, and doesn't know what to do next.

THE Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Sun has the following in reference to the re-election of Mr. THURMAN to the United States Senate:

"It is now said that a clause will be inserted in the new Constitution, which will be submitted to the vote of the people next spring, providing for the election of a new Legislature next fall. As the present term of Senator Thurman does not expire until March 4, 1875, it is claimed that such new Legislature, which would meet at least two months before that time, would only have the power to elect his successor.

IN regard to the tightness of the times in Georgia the Columbus Sur of a recent issue says:

"All the towns are as hard up as Columbus. None of the big wholesale houses in Macon are doing anything. A proprietor of one the largest wholesale establishments in the State told a friend of ours it was hardly worth while to open his doors, as the sales did not pay the salaries of his clerks. The same condition exists in Griffin. Merchants are taking cotton for the payment of debts In Atlanta the situation is as bad as anywhere else, if not worse. A gen-eral crash is feared. Everywhere you meet blue and lengthened faces. In Macon and Brunswick railroad money is used. Going to Atlanta you find Forsyth money; and further up local certificates. Greenbacks are never shown you except as a curiosity. Along the railroads you see the fields white with cotton, and not a least upon the stalks. In some fields not a hand is picking. Should a heavy, beating rain come large quantities of cotton would be lost.'

OF the recent election in Pennsylvania the Harrisburg Patriot says: "All parties in Pennsylvania seemed willing to let an important election go by default, trusting to a new Constitution to bring into operation needed political reforms which they were unable to effect for themselves. So great was the indifference in regard to the result that the Constitutional Convention refused to adjourn to permit its members to go home and vote. The vote of the State this year for Supreme Judge is 465,074. The vote for State Treasurer is 464,194. Gordon's majority for Supreme Judge is 14,192, and Mackey's majority Outside of Philadelphia the Democratic majority on State Treasurer is 148. The vote of Pennsylvania for Governor in October, 1872, was 672'-408. This shows a falling off in the vote of the State to the extent of 208,212, since last year. We take the vote of 1872 as the highest that the State can give, as the fraudulent ballots will easily set-off the legal voters who neglected to go to the polls. Thus it will be seen that about one man in every three stayed at home last election day. In Philadelphia the decline of the vote is nearly twenty-five thousand, though the ring by lively figuring were able to exceed the fraudulent majority of last year. There is no further necessity of examining the details of an election in which one-third of the voters of the State took no part. They are important only as showing how large is the class of citizens who need some other stimulus besides a sense of duty to the State and to themselves to impel them to exercise the privilege of suffrage, and of enabling some estimate to be formed of the extent of labor and of the expense which are required when it is important to bring out the whole vote. As a basis of calculation for the political future, the returns have no value."

The Fruits of Radicalism-The Recent Horror in Louisiana.

The reading of the dispatch contained in our telegrams of Saturday night will cause a thrill of horror to every one who peruses it. The tale of barbarity and brutality it discloses is unparalleled in the history of crime in our country. The atrocious details make one shudder with an inexpressible horror. Rape has always been regarded as the acme of crimality and deserving of the extreme pen-alty of the law; but when the horrid upon his poem than his novel, he has the telegraphic reports, language is inadequate to characterize the monstrosity of the crime and the inventive genius of revenge powerless & mete out the deserved punishment. Not upon the direct perpetrators of the crime alone should swift and terrible vengeance be visited, but upon those who incited and instigated the terrible deed by their abominable and hellish teachings.

The force of public opinion will drag the personal actors in this outrage upon civilization and humanity to the gibbet despite the color of authority under which they acted, and the instigators, unable to stem the torrent of indignation, will join in the cry against them. But should the sacrifice of the poor tools shield the real responsible parties? Every consideration of justice and right gives a negative answer. The responsibility of this fiendish act rests directly upon the usurping State Government of Louisiana and indirectly upon the Congress that deposed the legal and constitutional government of the State and propped that of the usurper Kellogg upon the point of Federal bayonets. What shall be said of our government and boasted enlightenment when we are called upon to chronicle the perpetration of such soul-sickening crimes, committed by the armed and commissioned minions of the faction in power in a so-called free State of the so-called free Union? What was the reply of the officer commanding the Metropolitan Police, Kellogg militia, or whatever name they designate themselves by, when notified of these transactions and the guilt of his subordinates?-"I am up here for higher purposes than arresting men for such petty offenses."

A shudder creeps over the body when the mind awakes to the realization of the utter demoralization which the teachings of Radicalism have inaugurated. Wherever the supporters of its doctrines are in power there crime and anarchy are prevalent.

The plain and unvarnished statement of facts, contained in Judge Merrill's letter, when published to the people of the United States, will open the eyes of all to some of the terrible consequences of usurpation and lawlessness, encouraged and sustained by the "powers that be."

SEA-GIFT-A Novel. By Edwin W. Fuller, Author of "The Angel in the Cloud." E. J. Hale & Son, 1873. Pp. 408.

North Carolina is to be felicitated upon the rapid increase of literary production within her borders. Miss FISHER, although obliged by stern necessity to write currente calamo, has already taken a position among the leading novelists of America, and we have here the poet-author of "The Angel in the Cloud" essaying his facile pen in the popular novel, instead of the didactive poem.

The scene of the Sea-Gift is laid, for the most, part in North Carolina, and childhood and boyhood and student life at Chapel Hill are sketched with wonderful fidelity to nature. True, much of this is commonplace, but isn't your life and ours, O critical friend, made up of the commonplace, end if it were less so, the book would be less natural. These scenes of early life, though drawn out perhaps at too great length and occupying too large a portion of the book, are the best portion of it, and we commend them to our readers most heartily.

It would be unjust to feminine readers to give the plot, as thereby much of their interest would vanish. It is sufficient to say that Sea-Gift is a love-story, prettily dedicated to the author's wife. A love-story in truth -for John Smith, the hero, acts in the novel very much like many a JOHN SMITH (especially a Chapel Hill John Smith) has done in real life; for he was hardly ever "off wi" the old love" a week, before he was "on wi' the new." Life at Chapel Hill, though perhaps a little highly colored, is well drawn, and we can forgive the duel unnecessarily lugged in. Was the practice of "devilling freshmen" quite as silly and as unbecoming as it is represented? We fear it was. The present writer happened to be a "soph," while the author was a freshman, and truly "the whirligig of time" has brought him his revenge. If our memory is accurate, we were in the crowd that smoked the author, and are forced to admit that the picture is not overdrawn. When we were smoked the year before, did not D., of Georgia, faint as described in Sea-Gift?

Dressing for ----, we were upon the point of writing the soubriquet of the victimized Professor—is capitally described.

But we are wandering from Sea-Gift into the dear memories of Chapel Hill. We thank Mr. FULLER for reviving them, and our gratitude is none the less sincere because we are forced to dissent from the faithfulness of some of his portraitures.

The war scenes do not occupy a prominent part, and we think do not add to the work. The political speculations are particularly out of place in a love story. We propose hereafter to give extracts from the the book, and to call attention more minutely to some of its beauties and to its de fects. It contains a pretty little poem, "Under the Pines," which we will hereafter give to our readers.

Upon the whole, while we would New York Correspondent:

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or discases which require treatment ext rnally this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or all-ments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honer, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECK-WITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from Sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent, I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. The Wilmington Concert for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum only netted $91.75. The United States District Court, in the condition of Capt. Morrison. An Irishman, a section hand on the N. C. R. R., was run over and killed on Saturday last, near Concord, by the down train.

The trial of the Willie Carter murderers is progressing in the New Hanover county Superior Court. On Friday the boy, Billy Merrick was discharged.

Says the Wilmington Star of the 1st

"We were shown yesterday, by Capt. R. P. Paddison, a neatly executed map, gotten up by Mr. Henry Colvin, County Surveyor, of the route of the proposed Railroad from Point Caswell, in this county, to Clinton, Sampson county. The length of the road will be about forty miles and the important points on the route through which it will pass are New-kirk's Bridge, Harrel's Store and Lisbon. The country which will be tributary to it is among the richest and most productive in the State, especially as regards turpentine and cotton, and the proposed road will consequently be the most direct route to Wilmington of a large amount of produce which now finds its way to other markets. Point Caswell is the head of navigation on Black River and is accessible to steamers at all times of the year, not being subject to the annovance from low water experienced by the boats running be-tween this city and Fayetteville."

PREBYTERIAN SYNOD.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Condensed from the Wilmington Star, of the 1st inst.]

The Synod met at 10 o'clock a. m., with the Moderator in the chair. After devotional exercises and the read ing of the minutes, on motion the order of the day was suspended. Rev. J. C. Alexander, of Mecklenburg Presbytery, appeared and gave tisfactory reasons for his absence. Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, late of West Hanover Presbytery, Va., was reported by Orange Presbytery as a ember, and was enrolled as a member of the Synod.

The annual report of Union Theological Seminery was read and referred to committee on the subject. This report shows that at the close of the 49th year of the Seminary, May 6, 1873, there were sixty-two students, and of this number sixteen students of the Senior Class stood their final examination, and the usual certificates were awarded them. Certificates were also awarded to two others who could not be at the examination, and who rendered satisfactory excuses. Since the report of 1872, seven hundred and seventeen volumes have been added to the library. The total number of volumes is 9,075.]

The Synodic 1 Treasurer's report was read and referred to its appropriate committee. The Moderator appointed 11 o'clock a. m., to-day to hear the Committee on Publication. Report of the Agent of Sustentation

Rev. Drs. Moran and Closs were invited to sit as corresponding mem-

The principal subject of discussion at the morning session was the question whether Mecklenburg Presbytery is bound to the support of the theological seminaries at Farmville and Columbia. The Judicial Committee's report of '72, on the complaint of Rev. W. W. Pharr and Dr. E. Nye Hutchinson, against the Presbytery of Mecklenburg, was read. The action of Mecklenburg Presbytery, in declining to pay the expenses of the Directors of either Union or Seminaries, who may be in their bounds, was read. Mr. Pharr supported the complaint. By request the original contract between the Synod of Virginia and the Synod of North Carolina, of 1826, was read. Rev. Dr. Miller replied to the Rev. Walter W. Pharrat some length, and was followed by the Rev. Jno. Douglas, of Mecklenburg Presbytery. The action of the Synods, held in Raleigh and Fayetteville, were read. Rev. H. G. Hill spoke on the subject. The Synod adjourned for dinner, the subject going over.

EVENING SESSION. The Synod's agent for the education of candidates for the ministry, Rev. N. McKay, D. D., made a report, which elicited much interest and debate. During this debate Rev. P. H. Dalton, agent for Davidson cllege, made an earnest and effective ddress, setting forth the great work in education and christianity done by this institution. He pressed its claims on the Synod for an ample endowment to increase its efficiency for There is much interest manifested in the proposition for increase of enlowment of this sterling institution f learning. How SHE TAKES THE TRAIN .-She comes down to the depot in an express wagon three hours before train time. She insists on sitting on her trunk, out on the platform, to keep it from being stolen. She picks up her reticule, fan, parasol, lunch basket, small pot with a house plant in it, shawl, paper of candy, bouquet, (she always carries one) small tumbler and extra veil, and chases hysterically after every switch engine that goes by, under the impression that it is her train. Her voice trembles as she presents herself at the res taurant and tries to buy a ticket, and she knocks with the handle of her parasol at the old, disused tool-house in vain hopes that the baggage man will come out and check her trunk. She asks everybody in the depot and on the platform when her train will start, and where it will stand, and, looking straight at the great clock, asks: "What time is it now?" She sees, with terror, the baggage man shy her trunk into a car where two men are smoking instead of locking it up by itself in a large, strong, brown car, with "Bad order shops," chalked on the side, which she has, long ago, determined to be the baggage car, as the only safe one in sight. Although the first at the depot, she is the last to get her ticket, and once on the cars, she sits, to the end of her journey, in an agony of apprehension that she has got on the wrong train and will be landed at some strange station, put into a large and close carriage, drugged and murdered, and to every last male passenger who walks down the aisle she stands up and presents her ticket, which she invariably carries in her hand. She finally recognizes her waiting friends on the platform, leaves the car in a burst of gratitude, and the train is ten miles away before she remembers that her reticule, fan, parasol, lunch basket, verbena, shawl, candy, tumbler, veil and bouquet, are on the car seat where she left them, or in the depot at Peoria, for the slife of her she can't tell which .- Peoria

The problem of woman's rights is at last to be practically solved in Masachnsetts. A woman's community has been formed in the town of Woburn, near Boston, in which the women will own all the real estate and have the entire management of affairs. The tyrant man is to be utterly disqualified in a political sense. The members of the community will be obliged to attend unsectarian services once a week. Industrial and domestic schools and a laundry on a very large scale will be established. One thousand persons are already committed to this novel enterprise. which will hereafter be known as 'The Women's Economical Garden Homestead League." The result of this exclusively feminine experiment will be watched with interest by the members of the sisterhood everywhere.

PROPOSED LEGAL CONVENTION .-Some Western papers have broached the subject of calling a convention of delegates from all the States, to be a uniform system of laws and forms concerning the acquisition, enjoyment and disposition of real and personal property, the forms and requirements of wills, deeds, mortgages, notes, receipts; the rules of taking and certifying depositions and other similar matters.

In Japan there are said to be trees four hundred or five hundred years old, which produce teas worth $5 a pound. Japanese writers say that the tea trade was introduced into their country from China nine hundred years ago. The plant is utilized as a hedge in the lanes of the villages and around the kitchen gardens.

Professor James Allen, a veteran eronaut of Providence, R. I., has nearly completed arrangements with some persons in San Francisco for a trans-continental voyage with a balloon which will have a capacity of 200,000 feet. He will make the attempt about the first of May, 1874.

GREATEST INVENTION F THE AGE.

Satisfaction Guaranteed in Every Instance.

OTHER MA CHINES HAVE THEIR PECULIAR MERITS-THIS HAS NO DEFECT. The Washing of a Family of Ordinary size Easily Accomplished before Breakfast!

Have Never Known One That Failed to Give Satisfaction! No other Machine can be sold after the "FRANKLIN" has been Tried. From One to Two Thousand Dollars a Year Guaranteed to Working Men!

Every County Sold in Which it has been Introduced.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO COMPETE WITH IT!!!

The inventor of the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" was owner of the right to manufacture the "Improved" woman's Friend in certain territory. While manufacturing these machines, and watching attentively their action and the manner in which they operated, and the results, he discovered certain prominent defects, therein. He spent ten months in the study of the subject of finding remedies for these defects. He has at las succeeded—and as the result of his investigation and study, he offers to the public the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER," which is by far the best Washing Machine ever patented. We claim as an evidence of its merit that "LETTERS PATENT" were granted over all others.

It will wash anything from a Lace Collar to a Bed Blanket. It will cleanse the clothing without tearing and more thoroughly than can possibly be done by hand labor or the use of the rubting board. With one-fourth of the labor four times as much can be done in the same length of time as can be done by hand. We could publish columns of certificates of its worth from those who have used it, but for the present we prefer the WASHER to speak for itself. We give a few below:

Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANIS.

Louisburg, September 27th, 1873.

Gentlemen:—Mrs. Davis has tried the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" and instructs me to say, in reply to your enquiry, that she is well pleased with it, and believes at to be all that you claim for it as a labor saving Machine. It does its work well and diminishes, by more than half, the labor of washing. She cheerfully recommends it Joseph J. Davis. Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS, 90 LOUISBURG, September 27th, 1873.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 10th, 1873. GENTLEMEN:—Before purchasing your Steam Washer, I paid four dollars per month for our family washing; now without any additional help, I have the washing done at home and pay fifty cents a week to have the troning done. In this way I save $2 per month, and my lothes are much whiter, and I am satisfied, will last much longer than when washed by rubbing or the use of a board. It is all that you recommend it to be.

Very respectfully.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been using your Franklin Steam Washer for some time and can safely say is far the best I ever saw. I cannot do without it. Mrs. A. W. WILSON. Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS, FRANKLINTON, September 9th, 1873 SIRS—Mrs. Gibbons has been using your "Frank!in Steam Washer" for two weeks not pronounces it a grand success. Rev. H. H. Gibbons.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, Louisburg, August 4th, 1873. GENTLEMEN:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." I acknow-ledge myself to have been incredulous with regard to yours, after having tested several others that had been as highly recommended to me; but the inconvenience to a large family, of not being able to get a good washer, regularly, induced me to give yours a trial. I am gratified to pronounce it a perfect success. I used it according to directions, and did two week's washing in two hours, nor did I give the first Rub. Whiter or more nicely washed clothes, I have never had. It only needs a trial to convince.

Respectfully, Mrs. W. H. Furman.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 12th, 1873. GENTLEMEN:—Through the kindness of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, I have tried your "Steam Washer," and find it by far the best I ever used. OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US:

"We take pleasure in saying that the "Franklin Steam Washer" is all that its proprietors claim it—a complete success. We hazard nothing in saying that nothing has ever been put upon the market that meets with such universal favor. We are yet to hear of the first one that des not give entire satisfaction.—Louisburg Courier.

"It is meeting with universal and unprecedented favor among domestic circles."—Rocky Mount Mail.

"Messrs, Barrow and Pleasants constitute one of the strongest and most reliable firms in Louisburg, and from what we have heard of the "Franklin Steam Washer" and the high character of the parties controling it, we have no doubt but that it is all that they represent it to be."—Biblical Recorder.

"The patentees claim for the "Franklin Steam Washer" a superiority over all others, and from the description we have had of its workings, we believe its claims are well founded."—Christian Advocate.

"We have known Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants from "our youth up," and know they would not recommend anything unworthy of patronge. They are leading merchants in Louisburg."—Asheville Citizen.

We have acquired by purcnase of the Patentee, Mr. S. W. Bartholomew, the sole right to manufacture and to sell the right to manufacture the "Franklin Steam Washer" within the United States and Territories.

We now offer the "Franklin Steam Washer" to the American people with full confidence that it will do all that we claim for it, and in order to introduce it as rapidly as possible, we are offering great inducements to working men who want to make money; we will sell State or County rights on very reasonable terms; for instance, we will sell the right to a county with ten thousand inhabitants for one hundred dollars. Within twelve months, if properly managed, the person can sell from three to five hundred Washers, at a profit of five dollars each, and his right will be worth more at the expiration of that time than it was at first, from the fact that it has been introduced and will sell that better that the parties w tion of that time than it was at first, from the fact that it has been introduced and will sell in almost every family.

To parties wishing to buy State or county rights, we will, send, on receipt of five dollars, just one-half of the retail price, the "Franklin Steam Washer" complete, with instructions how to use, &c.; and after satisfying themselves that it is what we recommend it to be, they can correspond with us in regard to territory wanted, our terms &c. We desire a good reliable General Agent in every State in the Union, at d we invite correspondence with working, men who would take to make money. None need apply who cannot furnish satisfactory evidence of their integrity and reliability.

Any tinnar can make the "Washer," or parties buying county rights, can obtain them through as at Cost.

BY J. S. VAN DE GRAAFF. Sou of the "dark and bloody ground,"
Thou must not slumber there;
Tho sister States thy praises sound
Along the Southern air!
Kentucky's soil should be thy grave—

Thy native sod thy tomb; he noble cause you fought to save With thee is wrapt in gloom! The Celtic breast was fired to arms. Regardless of the cost; A tyrant's act awoke alarms;
The battle now is lost! The battle low is lost.

Thou lent an ear to Honor's voice—i'rue instinct of the brave!

And kindred hearts will now rejoice

To guard a hero's grave! The song you sing o'er warriors dead,
The fitter requiem be;
For freely, too, thou wouldst have bled,
And smiled at Fafe's decree!
The gallant life has content.

Thy galiant life has gone to God— A soldier's sleep be thine! Tho stiff the form, and cold the c.od. Thy soul was e'er divine! Then let thy sacred dust be laid In Valor's proudest spot; And may thy Ivre so sweetly played By friends be ne'er forgot:

But tuned by some great master-hand To strike one pensive lay, And call thy spirit to the land Made hallowed by thy clay!

The appetite of a child is as catholie as it is excellent! A baby in New-Bedford has won immortal renown by swallowing 38 buttons (four of them brass), an iron sewing-macine nut, a gold sleeve button, and a thimble; and yet the pretty pledge still lives—a prosperous baby!
